AREA OVERVIEW

CULVER CITY

Located in the heart of the Westside, Culver City has become one of Los Angeles' most sought-after business and creative hubs. Long known as the "Heart of Screenland," the city continues to attract major entertainment, media, and technology companies, including Sony Pictures Studios and a growing number of production, digital media, and creative firms.

11124 Washington Place sits just minutes from Downtown Culver City, one of the most vibrant districts on the Westside. The area offers an excellent mix of restaurants, cafés, retail, and entertainment, creating a lively environment that appeals to both businesses and residents. Nearby Washington Boulevard and Venice Boulevard provide convenient access throughout the Westside, while the Metro E Line connects Culver City to Santa Monica and Downtown Los Angeles.

The surrounding neighborhood features a highly educated and affluent population, supporting a strong local economy and continued demand for commercial space. With its central location, walkable amenities, and strong employment base, Culver City remains one of the most desirable locations for businesses on the Westside of Los Angeles.
