Offering bespoke finishes, designer lighting and ideal floorplan, the main level highlights include: chef's kitchen with stone counters, center island, stainless appliances, dual-toned cabinets, glass pendant lighting and abundant storage. Spacious dining area with custom buffet flowing onto a private patio for dining alfresco on warm summer evenings. Sizable den anchored by a sleek gas fireplace with doors to the rear patio and gardens, light filled living room, full bathroom and additional flex room functioning as an additional bedroom, office or play space. The upper level features four full bedrooms including an exquisite primary suite with Dwell inspired bath, full hall bath, open den/lounge area, and laundry room. Access to the attached garage is from the rear driveway area and offers direct access into the home. The perfect West End location, close to Alameda Point, local breweries and wineries, the ferry to San Francisco, Ruby Bridges Elementary School, parks and soccer fields. Quick off island access to both the I-880 & I-580 to San Francisco.
